DEVERY'S FRIEND

OPINION OF DEVERY.

"Devery is not in my class. HE IS NO GENTLEMAN. He is beneath my notice."

FIRE SWEEPS
JACKSONVILLEHouses Torn Down in Florida City to Check Progress of Flames.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., May 3.—Several blocks of buildings in the business portion of the city have been destroyed by a fire which has been raging for two hours.

The flames have spread to the residences and over one hundred houses are believed to have been burned. Citizens are tearing down buildings wherever possible to prevent the spread of the flames.

All neighboring cities have been wired to send help.

A gale is blowing and at 3 o'clock this afternoon the fire was utterly beyond control. It already covers an area of nearly eleven blocks.

The fire department is working bravely, but owing to the heavy wind odds are against them. Big clouds of smoke almost envelop the city and residents of fire-swept section are in a panic.

The blaze so far is in the residential section, and much suffering is sure to follow the fire, as many are already homeless.

Among the manufacturing plants destroyed is that of the Cleveland Fibre Company.

ATLANTA, Ga., May 3.—The Western Union Telegraph Company lost connection with Jacksonville at 2:45 P. M. At 3:15 P. M. the chief operator there wired the Jacksonville people here as follows: "The fire is still raging. We have no operators now."

Further efforts to communicate with Jacksonville were without result.

BARTH HELD FOR BIGAMY.

First Wife Thought He Was Dead Until Recently.

Adolph Barth, of Dorchester, Mass., charged with bigamy, was held in $2,000 bail to-day in the Centre Street Court. Miss Annie Hart, of No. 71 East 52nd avenue, says she was married to Barth at No. 229 Lenox avenue, on Sept. 15, 1880. Barth deserted her later and she was told he had died in the West.

She contracted another marriage and only learned recently that Barth was married on July 3, 1893, to Johanna Brand, at No. 334 Trinity avenue. Barth had married her, she said, under the name of William Adolf Barth, and his second wife as Adolph Barth.

$1,500,000 CUT BY ODELL.

Governor Digging Out Pains in Annual Appropriation Bills.

ALBANY, May 3.—It is expected that Gov. Odell will cut the annual appropriation bill nearly $500,000. The Governor was in conference to-day with Speaker Nixon and Senators Higgins and Ellis on the various items. The $300,000 Adirondack appropriation will be cut out. It is said, as well as other "plum" sums inserted through political influence.

Altogether the Governor is said to contemplate a cut of $1,500,000 in measures carrying individual appropriations.

Frank Farrell, Also "Tim" Sullivan's Business Partner, Indicated by the Committee of Fifteen as High Mover in the Gamblers' Syndicate.

John Doe has at last been found. He is Frank Farrell, Devery's bosom friend, and is head of the gamblers' combine.

A member of the Committee of Fifteen said to The Evening World to-day that the evidence against him was conclusive.

ASSOCIATED WITH FARRELL IN THE GAMBLERS' SYNDICATE, SAYS THIS MEMBER OF THE COMMITTEE, ARE SENATOR "TIM" SULLIVAN, JAMES MAHONEY AND "BOB" DAVIS. J. W. CULLEN'S OFFICE, AT NO. 34 EAST NINTH STREET, WAS THE CLEARING-HOUSE FOR THE SYNDICATE.

Farrell and Sullivan are Devery's closest friends. Their word can make or break any gambler in New York.

"We know the men. We know their methods. We have evidence the newspapers know nothing about," said the Committeeman.

"We will make arrests when we have our cases cinched. We will not drag these men into court to be discharged. We are forging the last links of evidence now, and when we make arrests the Court of Appeals will not turn these men loose."

The three men who hold the gamblers' secrets of blackmail and protection are Justice Jerome, Col. Robert Grier Monroe, counsel for the Fifteen, and District-Attorney Philbin.

It is intimated that one result of the recent raids and the evidence discovered will be the preferring of charges against Deputy Police Commissioner Devery. It is held that if charges of neglect of duty will lie against Captains in whose districts gambling resorts flourished, a stronger case can be made against the actual head of the Police Department.

FARRELL THE FRIEND OF DEVERY.

Business Partner of "Tim" Sullivan and Proprietor of Pool-Rooms.

Who is Frank Farrell?

To every policeman in New York he is known as Devery's friend.

To gamblers he is known as Senator "Tim" Sullivan's business partner.

He began life as a barkeeper, then branched out as a saloon-keeper at Thirty-sixth street and Sixth avenue. That was sixteen years ago. He went into the pool-room business several years later.

With the patronage of "Tim" Sullivan he prospered until, in 1897, he was a formidable competitor of James Mahoney, the pool-room king.

Mahoney declined war and Farrell fought him. He had Sullivan behind him, and Sullivan meant Tammany. Mahoney was finally forced to a treaty of peace.

Meanwhile the newspapers opened fire on both the pool-room men. Farrell boasted that, through Sullivan's pull, he would whip the press into line. He showed himself a man of ready wit and a good fighter.

Sometimes he moved his places three miles.

WOULDN'T WAIT ON GIBBS.

Doctor Not in Court Magistrate Discharges Prisoner.

Magistrate Cornell, in the Jefferson Market Police Court, to-day refused to hold Frank Labounty, the laborer whom Dr. G. W. Gibbs, brother of Fred Gibbs, the Republican National Committeeman, had arrested yesterday afternoon on Broadway, in front of the Fifth Avenue Hotel. Dr. Gibbs sent him a letter asking him to hold the case over until 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Magistrate Cornell, after listening to the denial of the defendant that he had abused Dr. Gibbs, said:

"At best this could only be a case of disorderly conduct. You have been in a cell since last night. Have you not?" he asked Labounty. "Well, I won't hold it to please anybody. He writes me that he has an engagement at this hour and to be present at this time would be inconvenient. You may go. You are discharged."

Dr. Gibbs had Labounty arrested yesterday, accusing him of using insulting language.

Mrs. Truman Awarded Alimony.

Justice Smith, in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to-day granted the application of Mrs. Helen Eliza Truman, who is suing her husband for separation on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment, for $200 counsel fees and $20 a week alimony pending the disposition of the case.

MANY VICTIMS OF PANIC.

One Hundred Russian Women and Babies Drowned During Storm.

LONDON, May 3.—A special despatch from Odessa, dated April 26, purports to give an eye-witness story of the recent ferry-boat disaster on the River Dnieper, near Katshkarovka, when almost one hundred women, with their babies, returning from the evening milking, were drowned.

A sudden storm sprang up, there was a panic, the pontoons were swamped and only a few were saved. Practically every family in the village was rendered motherless by the disaster.

Seven Men in House Crash.

CHICAGO, May 3.—While wrecking the old Winston apartment building at Nos. 129-131 Pine street to-day seven men were buried by the collapse of the roof. Two Italians probably will die. It is thought no more men are in the ruins.

The Batting Order.

Washington. Brooklyn.
May 3.—A thirty-knot sale blew across the Champions' grass plot when the Hamiltons and Phillies lined up for practice this afternoon.

Billy Dahlen hit the ball square on the trade mark and lifted a long fly into the bushy breeze. It started in the direction of "Lefty" Davis, who does stunts out in the left garden. "Lefty" saw a chance for a circus catch, and raced back toward the club-house. When he took a peek over his shoulder to note the progress of the ball he changed his mind about going after it.

Wind Blows a Gale.

The wind, which is blowing diagonally across the field from left to right, was carrying the ball in a long curve that brought it to Mother Earth about ten yards from the right field bleachers. A couple of hundred feet to leeward of where "Lefty" thought it would drop.

"I'll have an easy time to-day," said Davis. "I won't have to chase any flies. All the balls knocked out my way will land over in Willie Keeler's territory if this small-sized hurricane keeps up."

"A man will need a net to get those flies to-day," was Tom McCreery's comment.

Looked Fat in Sweaters.

"My hook fat all these Brooklyn are" exclaimed a young woman in the stand as Hamilton's men took the lot for their preliminary canter.

"They ain't fat, sis," explained her small brother. "They've got a few sweaters on under their suits. That's all. If you was out in that wind you'd wish you had an oil stove with you."

Harry White, the tall young collegian who won his game in Philadelphia against the Superbas last week, is slated to do the box work for Shettsline's crew to-day. White is a southpaw with an astonishing variety of shots in his twisting repertoire. He is a tall, slim-built athlete, with reach that would make a champion pugilist turn green with envy. His long left sweeps and wide curves had the Brooklyn stickmen up a tree when he faced them before.

SOUTH END BALL GROUNDS, BOSTON, May 3.—After the disagreeable weather of yesterday the Boston weather prophet dished up a fairly decent specimen of weather to-day. It was clear and crisp, just cold enough to keep a good many fans away from the grounds, but not so cold that the players were uncomfortable after one had warmed up.

Mathewson in the Box.
The preliminary practice was quite lively on both sides, and the pitchers showed plenty of speed. Nichols and Pettinger warmed up for Boston and Mathewson and Fisher for New York.

Considering the day, the crowd was of fair size. The field was firm and hard, and the only thing to discommodate the players at all was a rather high wind, that swept across the field at a north-west angle, making the judging of flies difficult.

Giants Popular in Boston.

Despite New York's low position in the race last year, there is no more popular club that visits Boston, unless the champions themselves are excluded. New York always plays a hard, fast game when up against Boston, and Capt. Davis and his crew are deservedly popular here.

To-morrow Boston will probably give its latest twirling acquisition, young Lawson, who comes from North Carolina, a trial.

First Inning.

New York went to bat. Van sent a little one to Nichols and was easy at first. Seibach doubled to right. Davis fanned. Hickman followed suit. No runs.

Hamilton flied to Seibach. Seibach by a beautiful run got Tenney's liner. Demont fanned. No runs.

Second Inning.

Strang flied to Demont. Lowe and Tenney took care of Ganzel. Bernard was out. Long to Tenney. No runs.

Long was thrown out by Smith and Lowe by Strang. Capt. Davis took care of Crolius's grounder. No runs.

Third Inning.

Smith singled past second. Mathewson sacrificed, sending Smith to second. Smith's pretty single to right. A red Smith. Van and Seibach were doubled up. Nichols to Long to Tenney. One run.

Barry lined to Mathewson and was out. Ganzel. Kittridge singled to right. Nichols flied to Seibach. Strang by a lightning kick, and throw out Hamilton at first. No runs.

Fourth Inning.

Davis out. Nichols to Tenney. Hickman singled to left. Strang struck out. Seibach flied to Hickman. No runs.

Strang and Ganzel doubled. Tenney, Davis and Ganzel flied the same to Demont. Long flied to Van. No runs.

Fifth Inning.
Bernard walked, first base on balls of the game. He was out stealing second. Kittridge to Lowe. Smith fanned.
